Online Webinar “ICT Tools for Teaching & Learning”

Overview

In the current condition of lockdown due to Coronavirus, having knowledge about ICT tools can definitely impact on the students learning. For teachers also who are digitally literate can easily communicate, create, disseminate, store and manage information by using this tools. The various tools of ICT such as interactive digital whiteboards or smartphones, laptops, tablets, webcams, internet connectivity etc. all contribute towards enhancing the motivation and engagement of students in the subject learning.

The Department of Computer Science, Vidya Bharati Mahavidyalaya, Amravati, has organized one day Online National Webinar on “ICT Tools for Online Teaching & Learning” for faculty and Students of UG and PG on 05.10.2020 at 11.00 am on Webex meeting app.

Aims and Objectives

- 1) To make the participants understand the importance of ICT tools in delivering quality online education to the students particularly in extreme situations and crisis like COVID-19 pandemic.
- 2) To provide necessary technology and training for students and teachers to facilitate online teaching and learning process.

The webinar was started at 11.00 am. by warm greeting to Hon'ble Principal Dr. P.S.Yenkar President of the Webinar, Guest Speakers Dr. Parag R. Kaveri, Program Head, Symbiosis Institute of Computer Computer Studies & Research, Pune & Dr. Gopal Sakarkar Associate Professor, Dept. of Artificial Intelligence, G. H. Rasoni College of Engineering, Nagpur , All Heads of the Department and all participants. Dr. Athar Iqbal gave the introductory remark and highlighted the objectives of the webinar. In the first plenary session of the webinar, Dr. Parag R. Kaveri, Program Head, Symbiosis Institute of Computer Studies & Research, Pune delivered lecture on Cloud Computing, Big Data, Google Data Security, etc. He explained in his lecture that how to store data on cloud, how to deal with big data, also he explained about Google Data Security. This session was very interactive and many questions were asked by the participants.

In the second session, Dr. Gopal Sakarkar, Associate Professor, Dept. of Artificial Intelligence, G. H. Rasoni College of Engineering, Nagpur threw the light on Importance of E-Teaching & E-Learning. He explained almost all the applications of E-Teaching, advantages of E-

Teaching, etc. Both the sessions were very interactive. Prof. Ashwini Rathi & Prof. Minal Deshmukh host the programme.

Coming to the end, the Principal of the College, Dr. P. S. Yenkar delivered her presidential address and congratulated all the participants and organizer for successfully organizing this webinar and suggested to conduct the webinar on Nano Sciences regularly every year. She encouraged the staff to get acclimatized with the emerging trends in administration and the responsibilities and the webinar was concluded with vote of thanks presented by Dr. V. R. Dhawale, Head, Dept. of Master in Computer Application. Total registrations for the webinar were 507 and total number of participants attended the webinar was 550. All the participants received e-certificate through Google form.

Outcomes

Considering the boom in online learning and education, having adequate knowledge of the tools of Information and Communication Technology can greatly enhance the learning process in future. This Webinar enabled the teacher and the students to set their own learning pace and there's the added confidence to teach and learn by using these tools for online teaching and learning purposes.
