A Report

Activity No. 1: Three days Protocol Training Camp

Uncertainty about Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) has caused widespread panic, stress, and anxiety. Indians, since the ancient times have experienced the numerous benefits of Yoga as a way of life and a healing practice for the mind and the body. In more recent centuries, especially in the modern times more prone to mental stress and physical strife, people across the world have adopted Yoga for its scientific values and methodological virtues. Training camp was organized to promote and inculcate this traditional practice for healthy mind and body. The college celebrated 7th World International Yoga Day with enthusiastic participation of more than 250 students, faculty and staff members. Three day Training Camp was organized from 18th to 20th June, 2021 on Online (Webex) mode. It was jointly organized by Department of Physical Education, Vidya Bharati Mahavidyalaya, Amravati and Arts, Commerce College, Yeoda .

Participants Present for the Program

Day 1: Meditation, Pranayams & Mudras	Participants: 94
Day 2: Surya Namaskar	Participants: 127
Day 3: Yogasana	Participants: 71

The main part of the program that is demonstration of Yogasanas, Meditation & Pranayama, Suryanamaskar was instructed by Dr. V.V. Parhate, Head Chemistry Department and was beautifully performed by participants.

Aims: - Awareness about benefits of yoga.

Objective: - To make the students, teaching and non-teaching staff members aware about the importance of yoga in their daily routine.

The session started with some basic stretching exercises. Increasing flexibility through stretching is one of the basic tenets of physical fitness. These exercises help in warming up of the body before and after exercise in an attempt to reduce risk of injury and increase performance. In the session it was discussed that Pranayama is the ancient practice of controlling your breath. It connects your body and mind. It also supplies your body with oxygen while removing toxins. During the next day session the physical benefits of Surya Namaskar was discussed. The different poses and breathing technique was demonstrated. It is known to be an effective cardiovascular workout and has a greatly positive impact on the human body and mind. In 3rd day session it was discussed that attaining a correct posture while doing asana is very important. Asana are also called yoga poses or yoga postures. Asana are claimed to provide both spiritual and physical benefits such as improved flexibility, strength, and balance; it also reduces stress and conditions related to it. In this way three day Training camp was ended with great zeal and enthusiasm and a new spirit.
