

Vidya Bharati Mahavidyalaya, Amravati

Feedback Committee

Action Taken Report

2023-24

Feedback Received from Students	Action Taken	Impact
Upgrade the computers in the computer lab	The college administration approved the budget for upgrading computers in Lab 1. Installation of new systems and software updates have been scheduled.	Improved learning experience for students in the computer lab.
Permission for civil dress on "Josh" event from next year	The request for civil dress during the "Josh" event was approved by the college administration. Guidelines for appropriate dress codes will be issued.	Increased student participation and enthusiasm for the event.
Addressing student problems promptly	A student grievance cell has been established to address students' concerns more efficiently.	Faster resolution of student issues and improved student satisfaction.
Promoting outdoor games and extracurricular activities	The sports department has been instructed to organize more outdoor games and extracurricular activities. Grounds have been made available for students.	Increased student engagement and improved fitness levels.
Enhancing learning practices in the Department of Commerce	Business Case Study sessions, engaging talks, debates, and inter-departmental competitions have been initiated by the Department of Commerce.	Enhanced practical learning and skills development for commerce students.
Improve communication of important information	Teachers have been instructed to ensure timely communication of important updates through WhatsApp groups and notice boards.	Improved information dissemination among students.
Financial support for students from economically weaker sections	The college has initiated a financial assistance program to support students in need.	Increased academic participation of financially weak students.
Active learning through group activities and problem-solving exercises	New teaching strategies emphasizing group discussions and problem-solving have been implemented in various departments.	Improved student engagement and collaborative learning.
Organize industrial trips and inter-college sports tournaments	Industrial trips have been planned for the next academic session. Inter-	Better practical exposure and increased sports participation.

	college sports tournaments have been scheduled.
Practical programming language training in CS courses	The Computer Science department has introduced practical sessions for programming languages.	Improved practical knowledge for B.Sc. and BCA students.
Internship opportunities	The college has partnered with local industries and organizations to offer internships to students.	Better career readiness and practical exposure for students.
Improvement in teaching styles	Faculty development programs have been organized to improve teaching methods.	Enhanced classroom learning experiences.
Repair and cleanliness of boys' toilets	Maintenance work for boys' toilets has been completed, ensuring hygienic conditions.	Improved sanitation facilities for students.
Security and cleanliness in canteen area	Increased security personnel at the canteen, and regular cleanliness drives have been initiated.	Improved canteen environment and student safety.
Focus on skill development and promoting student talents	Workshops and seminars focusing on skill development have been organized across various departments.	Enhanced student skills and talents.
Use of research-based study techniques	Research-based study methods and interactive learning tools have been introduced in classroom sessions.	Increased academic curiosity and engagement among students.
Providing inter-departmental group competitions	Regular inter-departmental group competitions have been scheduled to promote healthy competition and collaborative learning.	Improved student interaction and participation.
Diversifying programs for Arts students	Various new programs and competitions have been introduced for Arts students, covering diverse career paths beyond civil services.	Broader exposure and opportunities for Arts students.
Changing summer examination time	The suggestions about Summer Examination time received from the stake holders is communicated to the authorities of the university.	More comfortable examination environment.
Promoting internships and placement drives	The college has strengthened its placement cell to provide more internships and placement opportunities for students.	Improved job prospects for students.
Organizing coding competitions	The Computer Science department has planned coding competitions to be held twice a year.	Increased interest and participation in coding activities.
Educational tours related to courses	Educational tours related to specific courses have been planned for the next academic session.	Enhanced practical knowledge and real-world exposure.

Providing practical materials and job guidance	Practical materials for labs have been procured, and job guidance seminars have been scheduled across departments.	Better practical knowledge and job preparedness for students.
Library books aligned with current syllabus	New books in line with the current syllabus have been added to the library.	Improved academic resources for students.
Encouraging teachers to be more professional	Regular teacher training sessions have been organized to promote professionalism in teaching.	Improved teaching quality and student-teacher relationships.
Fostering a supportive learning environment	Various initiatives have been introduced to make the learning environment more supportive and engaging.	Enhanced student experience and learning outcomes.
Conducting Practice Test Papers Before Main Exams	Departments have been instructed to schedule regular practice tests covering the full syllabus before semester exams.	Improved academic preparedness and better performance in university examinations.
Introducing Technological Upskilling Programs (e.g., GenAI Foundation)	Workshops on emerging technologies, including foundational programs on Generative AI and other advanced tools, have been introduced.	Students and faculty gain up-to-date technological knowledge and skills.
Full-Syllabus Semester-Wise Exams Before University Exams	Departments have begun organizing internal exams covering the complete semester syllabus.	Better preparation for university-level assessments.

Prof. P. G. BANSOD
 Co-ordinator
 IQAC Co-ordination Cell
 Internal Quality Assurance Cell
 Vidya Bharati Mahavidyalaya
 Camp, Amravati-427602 (M.S.)

 SIGNATURE
 PRINCIPAL
 Vidya Bharati Mahavidyalaya
 Amravati.